

REGINALD BOCLAIR | *WHAT MAKES YOU FEEL SAFE?

What would make me feel safe is seeing love and community being disseminated throughout society. Love and community are the antidote to the violence and harm of a capitalistic world. Love works no ill towards its neighbor. The practice of love breeds community, engendering the possibility of social and cultural change. Love and community makes me feel safe.

Reginald BoClair is a graduate of NEIU, scholar, artist, writer, abolitionist, and poet.

He is the baby boy of his family, raised by women his whole life.

No one knows that he's in "Love" with "Love."
